Forest Hill Public Library

2016 Summer Reading Club Instructions

1. Registration is available starting June 7th. To start fill out a registration form.

A. You can grab a registration sheet at the front desk, fill it out and give it to a staff person.

B. You can get online, go to our webpage and follow the instructions to register yourself.

C. You can ask a staff member at the library to register you.

It takes one minute.

2. The objective is to read anything you like for an hour each day. Everything counts including books, magazines and websites. By reading each day for an hour you will earn points each week. 5 points will earn you one raffle ticket to go towards our grand prize drawing. You will also be able to add extra points by completing a weekly activity sheet in which a completed activity earns you a certain amount of points.

3. If you like you can track your progress by going online to our website and printing out a log sheet.
